IMPORTANT NOTES

1. You will be sent a copy of this form to keep.
2. Your nominee can be an individual (including a child) or an incorporated/unicorporated body (e.g. a bank, partnership or a firm of solicitors). You may not nominate more than 1 individual.
3. You are responsible for:
  - making sure your nominee knows the terms of this nomination; and
  - instructing your nominee on any terms of distribution of the death benefit paid under this nomination.
4. The nomination will not be valid, if, at the time of your death:
  - the nominee is your spouse and the marriage has come to an end;
  - the nominee has died; or
  - CSP consider, at the time that payment of the death benefit to the nominee is not reasonably practicable.
5. Please make sure that you tell us if there is a change in your nominee's address. (If your nominee has moved, there is a risk that we may consider that payment is not reasonably practicable.)
6. You may change your death benefit nomination at any time.
7. The death benefit will be paid to your personal representatives if there is no valid nomination.
